CSR A-Z Guide

Open educational resources on CSR for VET
Project number: 2021-1-SE01-KA220-VET-000028142

The Guide is online

Welcome

The CSR A-Z Guide aims at VET teachers, educators, and managers, to provide them with practical advice on how to include CSR policies and values into the educational and training process and their organisations' management.

To do this, we analyzed the results of the questionnaire conducted in the first phase of the project activities, the results of a series of face-to-face interviews, and a selected number of inspiring practices both in the VET and the business sector. We collected particularly significant suggestions and keywords in the respondents' answers, that will be the basis for implementing teaching methodologies and techniques, as well as operational conditions that facilitate the expression of the CSR principles in the second main result of the project: "CSR Ambassador Training Programme". We hope this guidebook will become a point of reference and debate for anyone who works in the VET sector, which is why we came up with an annexed online dictionary on csr2vet.eu which is an ongoing activity.

CSR dictionary for VET

CSR has more than one dictionary. In this section we suggest you a new one, looking at CSR while focusing on VET.
